Community Invited To Ground-breaking Ceremony for All-veterans Memorial

By Evelyn Atkins

At 6 p.m. on Monday, September 23, a ground-breaking ceremony will be held outside Romulus City Hall for a monument commemorating the service of veterans from all branches of the military.

Among others present at the ceremony will be Hugh Hubert, who, at age 93½, is the oldest veteran known to be living in Romulus; Jason Lovette, 82, a veteran and member of the Romulus Rotary; and Walter Molik, 81, a member of the Romulus Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) Post #9568. Other veterans of similar age who would like to be involved should contact Rotarian Bill Crane (941-9200).

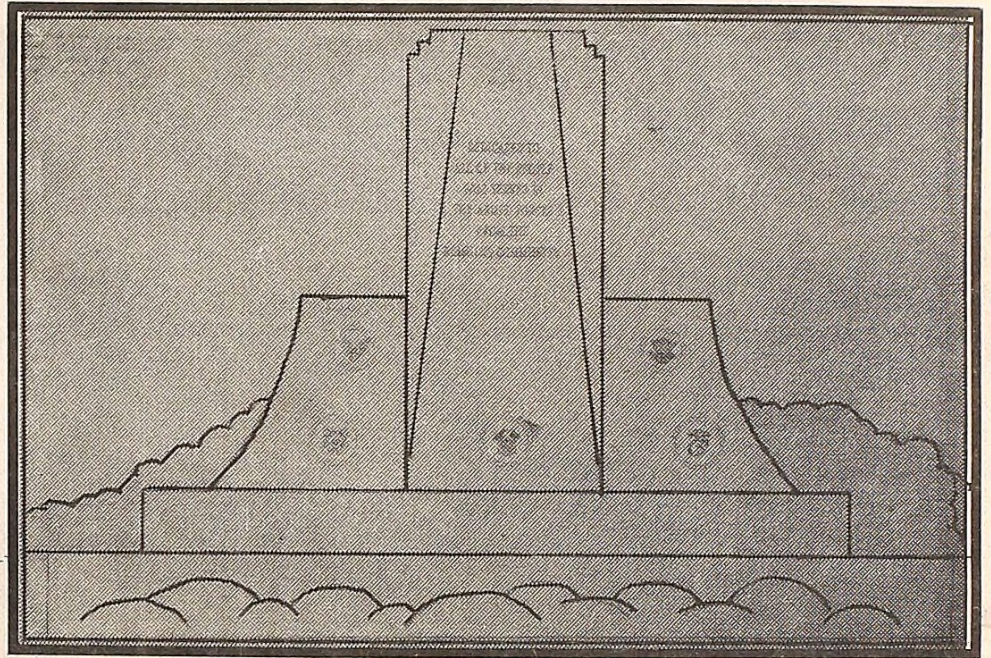

The memorial project, which has been in the works for about two years, was begun by the Romulus Rotary Club, which has done most of the planning and organizational work for the project and will be contributing a significant portion of the funding. Other groups that have become involved in the project's planning and fund raising are the Romulus Kiwanis and the local VFW.

The proposed monument (illustrated at right) will be about 12 feet wide and seven feet tall, and will have five round, bronze plaques (one for each major service branch) on its front and back sides. Donations for six of these 10 plaques (which cost $1,000 each) have already been promised by the Romulus Progressive Club, the Romulus Police Officers Association, the Romulus Fire Fighters Association, the Romulus Chamber of Commerce, the Romulus Kiwanis Club, and VFW Post #9568. Other businesses or groups who would like to purchase a service plaque should contact Bill Crane or Romulus City Treasurer Jim Napiorkowski (942-7580).

A plaque displaying the seal of the City of Romulus, as well as one listing the names of elected officials in office at the time of the ground-breaking, may be added to the monument as well, although neither proposal has received confirmation at this time.

Donations will also be sought from individuals in the community through a fund-raising effort involving the sale of commemorative bricks. These bricks, which will be placed at either the base of the monument or in the ground surrounding it, can have the donor's name, the name of a loved one who served in the military, or other information inscribed in them. Watch for more specific information on this and other fund-raising projects in future issues of "the little paper." □

Arts & Crafts Fair/Book Sale

By Gloria Chandler

On Saturday, September 21, the Romulus Arts Commission will hold its annual Arts & Crafts Fair on the grassy area surrounding the Romulus Public Library (located at Wayne and Goddard roads) from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Over 40 crafters are expected to display their wares at this year's fair. Here are just some of the articles that will be available for purchase: "large cards for yards," lots of "country" wood items, wood lawn crafts, lamps made from mason jars, handpainted wood houses, painted shirts and sweat-shirts, handmade jewelry, and lots of Christmas items. We hope that you'll come and start your Christmas shopping early!

There will also be a food wagon, a cake walk, and a raffle.

The Romulus ROTC (Reserve Officers Training Corps) will present the Colors at 10 a.m.

There's still plenty of room for crafters who have not yet registered. The fee for a space is only $10. (All crafters must supply their own tables.) Please call 941-2678 for registration information.

Also scheduled for September 21 is the annual Fall Used-book Sale, which is sponsored by the Friends of the Romulus Library. The sale will take place in the Library's meeting room from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. This fall's sale is a one-day-only event, so be sure to come early for the best selection of these great bargains on paperback books!

Please join us for a fun-filled day. This is the main money-maker for the Arts Commission, so we really need and appreciate your support.

Bring your friends and neighbors. We'll see you there! □

White Charged with Manslaughter

By Evelyn Atkins

David White, a 19-year-old resident of Romulus, was arraigned on a manslaughter charge on August 30, 1991.

White was the driver of the motorcycle which struck and instantly killed nine-year-old Timothy Farkas, also of Romulus, on August 23.

Witnesses to the accident reported that Farkas, who was out bike-riding with two of his friends, was travelling across Leroy at Grove Land when White, driving westbound on Leroy at an extremely high rate of speed, struck Farkas's bicycle broadside.

If convicted, White would face a maximum jail sentence of 15 years and/or a $7,500 fine.

White was released from custody when his parents posted his bond (set for $10,000 or 10%).

His preliminary exam is scheduled for 9 a.m. on September 11 at the 34th District Court in Romulus. □

Traffic Stop

Not Buckling Seat Belt Is Most Expensive Crime

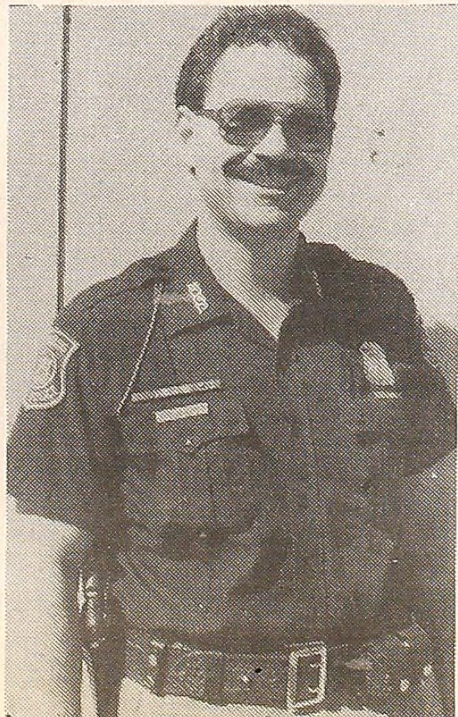

By Officer Rick Schwartz, Romulus Police Department

What's the most expensive crime facing America today?

Assault? Burglary? Rape? Nope. Crimes like burglary and aggravated assault cost Michigan some $2.4 billion a year in lost work days, insurance costs, police and ambulance costs, and property damage, plus pain and suffering. That's a pretty high tab, but it's not the highest.

The most expensive crime in America today is not buckling up in the car. Each year, traffic accidents cost us about $7.14 billion - nearly three times the costs of larceny, burglary, robbery, auto theft, assault, and rape combined.

Traffic accidents are America's number-one killer, which is why police must spend so much time enforcing the belt law. By buckling up, Michigan motorists could save about $3.5 billion a year. That would free Michigan police to go after the kind of criminals who should be behind bars ... not behind belts. □

Romulus Profile: Rhonda J. Hennessy, D.D.S.

By Tom Shamanski

Fidgeting uncontrollably in the waiting area, the young child's eyes darterratically about the room. Hands folded in his lap, they feel sticky with sweat. The traffic sounds are easily heard, as the window is open to allow a small, rotary fan to suck in cool air ... but all the child hears is the steady, high-pitched whirring sound of a dentist's drill. Suddenly, he hears another child screaming and he closes his eyes tightly. He wishes he was home watching Father Knows Best, or even in school; anywhere but here waiting for his turn at pain.

If your ages lies somewhere between 40 and 60 years, you can, no doubt, identify with the above scenario. You can probably close your eyes and, with a twist of imagination, actually feel the drill-inflicted pain. Luckily for us all, those days are gone.

Recently, I had an opportunity to talk with Dr. Rhonda J. Hennessy, 36, who has excelled in her own dental practice (located at 37211 Goddard in Romulus) for the past four years.

When asked, Hennessy said, "It's the 40- to 60-year-old patients who are the most anxious. From their recent dental work, their mind tells them there will be no pain, but their subconscious tells them to prepare for it. Therefore, I try to be especially gentle with these patients." She went on to say that young patients are good to work with because they've never experienced dental pain. Consequently, she's able to joke back and forth with the youngsters and, generally, work in a more relaxed atmosphere.

As Hennessy, dressed smartly in a brown suit, was scanning for some information, I glanced around her office. It was small. Packed in is her desk, a file cabinet, and one extra chair. However, as we later toured the building, I found the patient rooms to be large, airy, and cheerfully decorated. The devotion of considerably more room to her patients was, to me, indicative of Hennessy's desire to give top priority to her patients.

Asked about her slogan, she replied: "Well, I didn't like the 'We Cater To Cowards' slogan that many dentists use. Then, I remembered that many patients have complimented me on the gentleness of my hands. So that, along with being a family dentist, gave rise to 'Gentle Family Dentistry'." She added that it's an original slogan that sums up exactly what she does and is.

Hennessy came to Romulus in 1988 after being an associate of Thomas Dupuis, DDS, in Taylor. Before Dupuis, she was with Oakwood Dental Clinic in Dearborn for one year. Prior to that, she did her residency at the Veteran's Administration Medical Center in Allen Park.

"It's been somewhat of a long road for me that's finally culminated in Romulus. I was a certified dental assistant for eight years before deciding to become a dentist," she recalled. At that point, Hennessy entered the University of Detroit and remained there until achieving her DDS from the University's School of Dentistry in 1986. It was while at the dentistry school that she earned membership in the Crown & Bridge Vedder Society. She explained that this honor is presented to the class's top student in crown and bridge work. Presently, she holds memberships in the American Dental Association, Michigan Dental Association, and the Detroit District Dental Society.

On being a family dentist: "What I strive for is a practice where we can, basically, perform any dental procedure," said Hennessy. "Of course, there are occasions when we have to refer patients to specialized care, but, if possible, we'll tell the patients beforehand in order to offer them a choice." A few in a long list of procedures that Hennessy offers would include ascetic dentistry, restorative dentistry, root canals, oral surgery, implants, and gum treatments.

Hennessy has successfully surrounded herself with several capable people in her efforts to offer patients as many dental phases as possible. Nickalene Badalamenti, DDS, was brought aboard when the work load dictated such a move. Nicki, as Hennessy fondly calls her, was a student of hers when Hennessy did a four-year teaching stint at the University of Detroit. Badalamenti is pregnant and will be leaving soon, Hennessy added.

Lorine Yee-Shinski, DDS, was a dental hygienist for 12 years before initiating her move toward dental school. She's a 1990 graduate of the University of Michigan and lives in Livonia. Yee-Shinski will be assuming Badalamenti's case load after Badalamenti departs.

Hennessy, leaning back and smiling, spoke of her two associates: "I've been very fortunate and happy to have them. They're both good with patients as well as being good clinicians. Also, Nicki and Dr. Y. are updated on infection control, as we all are in the office."

Other members of the staff include June Farrah, full-time hygienist; Lyndia McCarty, office manager; Annette Russow, receptionist; Janet Choike, insurance specialist; Marlo Monett, Hennessy's dental assistant; and Sue Smith, receptionist/assistant.

And away from the daily business of family dentistry, what does Rhonda

Hennessy enjoy? First of all, her family: "My husband's name is Patrick McCarty; we were married during my junior year in dental school. He works for Ford Motor Company/United Auto Workers in Monroe, and has for 18 years." She continued, saying that her stepdaughter Adrienne, a sixth grader at Forest Elementary School in Riverview, is a cheerleader and a member of the glee club. Adrienne and Hennessy take piano lessons together.

"Playing piano is my most enjoyable outlet," stated Hennessy. "I play literally every day, and the fact that Adrienne and I take piano together is a real thrill for me."

Suddenly remembering, Hennessy pulled out a photo of their dog, Buster, a pure, snow-white American Eskimo.

Hennessy belongs to a health club and walks Buster twice a day. When the family can get away, she said, they oftentimes visit her parents in Fenton, Michigan, and take the opportunity to water-ski.

So, what lies ahead for the young dentist, Rhonda Hennessy, I wondered. Firstly, she answered, she wishes to continue in her Romulus practice and to do so in the best possible manner that she can.

Secondly: "Also, I've recently enrolled in MEDICO, an organization that coordinates volunteer medical/dental personnel with various impoverished countries for specific periods of service. I'd like to put back some of what I've been given and, for me, this may be the way to do it."

"I feel very good about Romulus, too. When I first arrived here, I didn't realize how large the city was, both in size and population. But it still retains its small-town flavor, and I like that. The people are from all over the Country and I really enjoy talking to them."

And, obviously, Romulus people enjoy talking to Hennessy ... more and more each year.

Sitting quietly in the waiting room, the young child smiles upward toward his mother. Through the reception window, he has seen the dental assistant preparing for his visit. Soon, the receptionist begins to call his name, but, before the words can escape her mouth, the young boy rushes by, saying, "Hi, Dr. Hennessy! It's really neat to see you again!" □

Romulus Flyers Junior Football

Football Undefeated!

By Fred Coleman, CAA, Athletic Director, Romulus Community Schools
Varsity: 2-0

After a tough, grin-and-bear-it year last season (0-9), the football program is making the moves to turn that corner the way many have been predicting.

Having an excellent winter weight program and putting a summer "all-passing" team in the Eastern Michigan League are just two elements that have contributed to the early success of this season.

"We took it on the chin playing a lot of sophomores last year, and I am sure that many people didn't understand why," stated third-year coach Dan Henry, "but I think if people come to our games this year and next, they may understand why we took that chance. Our staff is committed to working as hard as we have to to turn this program into a 'winner'. Six-and-three would be the best record in 30 years at Romulus, and we truly believe we are in reach of that record."

The Eagles have been paced by junior quarterback Bob Bergeron, as he went 7-for-9 in the 13-0 victory over Willow Run and 6-for-12 in the 13-8 win over Taylor Truman, while also scoring a touchdown. Truman was ranked third in the Metro West area and predicted to win their conference, but those impressive comments did not affect the play of the Eagles on Friday evening.

Senior Eric Love led the Eagles for the second straight week in tackles, with eight solo tackles versus Willow Run and 10 solos against Truman.

Playing with a dislocated thumb, Robb Thompson caught a TD pass and had an excellent defensive game at safety.

Junior Brian Helka and senior Reggie Clemons have handled the running-back positions and have amassed over 150 yards on the ground this season.

Both victories have been the result of solid defense, though, and the leading defensive players thus far have been Charlie Dudonis, Rob Graham, Mike Grube, Roger Bethune, and Mario Johnson.

Yancy Yarborough, a first-year player, and senior Henry Gilchrist were inserted in the defensive secondary to help secure the pass defense, and both had excellent games versus Taylor Truman.

"A huge crowd and a victory over Garden City could be just what is needed to put us in line for that great season we have all worked so hard for," concluded Henry. "I hope that everyone who reads this article will make plans today to come and support our team this week, and, more importantly, become involved in our efforts to give the community the football program it deserves."

Junior Varsity: 2-0

Coaches Dale Evans and Brian Tapp couldn't be happier with the efforts of their predominantly ninth-grade team, which has outscored its first two opponents, 59-18.

Quarterback Bill Ellison was lost for the season due to a broken hip sustained in the game against Truman this week, but replacement Jamal McCain stepped in and led the young Eagles to a 23-6 win over the Cougars.

Running backs Phillip Franklin, Skip Luster, and James Erquhart have totalled over 200 yards on the ground for the JVs, and that "power running" has led to two victories.

The defense has also been outstanding due to the efforts of Franklin, Luster, Erquhart, Randy Orme, Matt Ladach, Eric Nunlee, Lawrence Dawson, and Derrick Suddeth, who have all made great contributions. □

Devereaux Breaks RHS Kicking Record

By Fred Coleman, CAA, Athletic Director, Romulus Community Schools

Junior John Devereaux broke a 15-year-old RHS football record when he kicked a 45-yard field goal in the Eagles' 13-0 victory over Willow Run on Friday, August 30.

John went to a kicking camp this season and has perfected his soccer skills into a solid football technique that has added a very important element to our football program.

Having never played football until last year, John now has gotten the "fever" and is not satisfied with just being a "kicker." John has set a goal to be in the Eagles' starting lineup next season, and, considering the effort he has shown to become a better kicker for the team, you had better not bet that he won't accomplish this goal as well.

Congratulations, John... but don't be satisfied with what you've already achieved. Let's go for that "50-yarder" before you graduate from RHS! □

From the A.D.

By Fred Coleman, CAA, Athletic Director, Romulus Community Schools

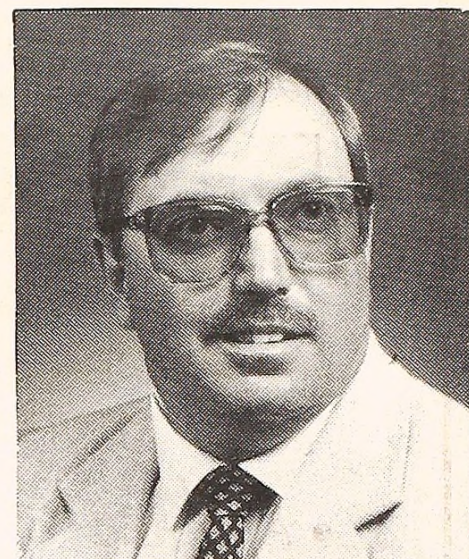

This is a short note to all of our fans who supported the millage that will develop a beautiful facility next fall, as well as to those who are interested in being part of the revitalization of Romulus athletics.

The 38 coaches on our current staff are totally dedicated to the youth of Romulus. No more are athletes expected to perform game night, yet allowed to skim their way through school. Almost every program has instituted a study table into their practice or at least taken a very strong stand on achieving good grades.

The greatest "victory" a coach has is to see his/her athletes go on to do something worthwhile with their lives, and our current staff has never been more dedicated to that concept than it is right now.

Between the unbelievable new facilities that we will soon have, the dedication and work ethic of our excellent High School and Junior High coaches, and the outstanding efforts of our young student athletes (both on and off the field), you can't help but be excited about the future of Romulus athletics, as well as that of the schools and the community.

I would hope that every parent or fan in Romulus will make every effort to get out to a ball game soon (and not just Homecoming) to see what is going on within our programs.

All questions and/or concerns (including any latest rumors) should be directed to me, Fred Coleman, at the Romulus High School Athletic Office (941-3414). We are dedicated to doing what is right for your sons and daughters, but we're not perfect, and, like all human beings, we too need an occasional "adjustment." Healthy criticism from concerned fans or parents will only help our programs become stronger.

Get involved now. You will be amazed at the pleasure you will gain from working with the outstanding youth in this community. □

RHS Sports Updates

By Fred Coleman, CAA, Athletic Director, Romulus Community Schools

Girls' Tennis

Team Record: 0-1

Coach Dan Stearn and his first-year team traveled to Taylor Truman to take on a senior-laden team and battle them extremely well in the only match of the season thus far.

Stacy Zilka lost in a tie-breaker at the first singles position, and Stacy is Coach Stearn's only player with any game experience.

Seniors Jenny McClure and Heide Bussard had excellent first outings, as did sophomores Lisa Decker and Jamie Taylor. Freshmen Keilani Buckley, Michelle Slawinski, and Jamie McGraw appear to be players for the future, and Coach Stearn expects to see tremendous improvement in all of the young ladies as the season progresses.

Girls' Basketball

Varsity: 0-2

JV: 1-1

The new coaching staff of Tempie Brown and Kelly Woods have their work cut out for them, as the Lady Eagles lost seven seniors from last year's team.

Carmita Brown returns as the only player with true varsity experience, and Andrea Brown returns with limited experience at this level.

They combine with junior Crystal Stevenson, LeKeisha Holmes, and Latanya Parkey to make up this young lineup for the 1991-92 season.

New Boston Huron and Wayne Memorial were our first two opponents, and, as Coach Brown put it, "We just aren't playing very well together yet."

Upcoming games with Taylor Center, Annapolis, and Adrian will give the Eagles a chance to work the bugs out of this new lineup before we enter the heart of our schedule.

Next home game: Tuesday, September 10, 5:30 p.m. (vs. Annapolis).

Golf

Team Record: 2-1

After a tough, rain-shortened opening loss to Adrian, the Eagle golf team has rebounded with victories over Erie Mason and Garden City.

Leading the way with recent scores of 38 and 39, respectively, are Brian Bartholomew and Tim Howell.

Also contributing to Coach Bill Knight's wins were Anthony Quimby, Mark Stillwagon, and Paul Cichowski.

Next match: Tuesday, September 10, at Ypsilanti-Lincoln. □

By Captain Ron Dubsky, Ice Breaker II Sport-fishing Charters (941-3529)

New York, New York! I recently returned from an exceptional 21 days of big-water fishing on Lake Ontario out of Olcott, New York. We were fishing for the evasive big-water fish, the kingsalmon. Our charters had a great time, or so they told me. The largest salmon weighed in at 32 pounds; coho, 16 pounds; steelhead at 12 pounds. We averaged four to nine fish per trip. This old captain even had a chance to "fun-fish" and caught a 25-pound king. We even have the picture to prove it.

Captain Ron and his 25-pounder!

The weekend of September 7 and 8, I had the opportunity to attend the Perry's Victory & International Peace Memorial Commemorative Ceremony at Put-in-Bay, Ohio. I also had the honor to board the recently reconstructed U.S. Brig Niagara, the only remaining warship from the Lake Erie fleet which served in the War of 1812. She was there to commemorate Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry and his battle of Lake Erie, in which Commodore Perry and his crew aboard the Niagara were victorious over the British fleet on September 10, 1813. This significant battle was the turning point of the War, from which Commodore Perry's famous statement, "We have met the enemy and they are ours," became etched in history.

Local fishing reports: Sandy from Sandy's Marina on Belleville Lake reports that all species are still being caught. Just stop by the Marina and ask Sandy how and where; she will be glad to give you any information.

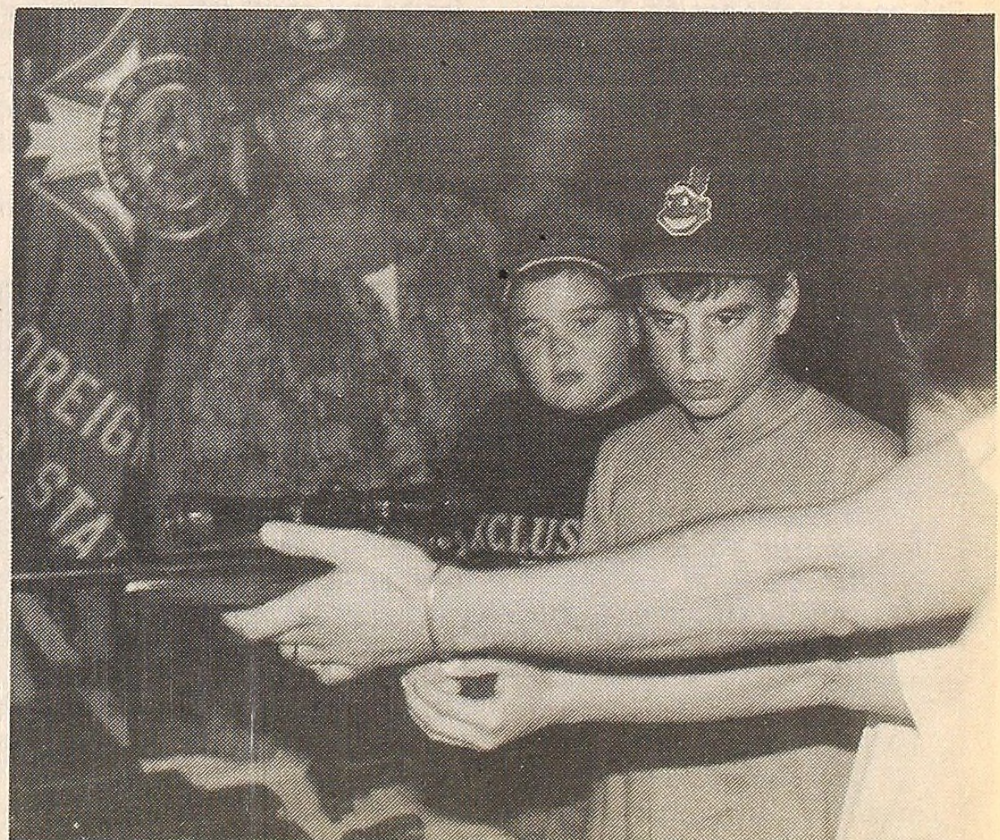

Bernie Shellman of Lindsay K Charters, my dock-mate, reports that walleye are still being caught in good numbers in Lake Erie. On Sunday, I stopped by our marina, and there's old Bernie cleaning a limit catch of nice-size walleye! Give him a call at 941-2869.

I will be putting my boat back in the water this weekend to start the perch season. The cost is $200 for the boat (all day) with a maximum of six people. This will be a good opportunity to get the whole family out for a great day of fishing.

That's all for now. Remember: "Take a kid fishing." □

More than 50 students participated in the annual Hunters' Safety Course (sponsored by Romulus VFW Post #9568) which was held September 7 and 8. Romulus police officers served as instructors, the VFW donated lunch for everyone, and the Comfort Inn supplied donuts.

Rec News

Thanks to Romulus Recreation Department staff members Gayle Mach, Tina Bertschinger, and Rick Doane for contributing information to this issue's "Rec News" column.

Parking Lot Dance

"You Can't Touch This #1," which had been scheduled for August 15, was rained out, but those of you who love to "put on your boogie shoes" will have another opportunity at "#2" on Sunday, September 22, when Right Stuff Sound and Lighting will play DJ music for your dancing/listening pleasure at the Romulus City Hall parking lot (Wayne Road at Goddard) beginning at 6 p.m. This event is free to the public, and everyone—young and old alike—is invited to participate in this community event.

"WM" Drawing Held

The Romulus Recreation Department is pleased to announce the winner of the Walk Michigan grand prize drawing.

Mrs. Helen Gallien was the first winner in the Romulus Walk Michigan contest. As the grand prize winner, Mrs. Gallien and a guest of her choice were treated to a fun-filled Labor Day weekend on Mackinac Island. The highlight of the weekend was joining Governor Engler for the annual Labor Day Bridge Walk.

This was the first year that Romulus participated in the Walk Michigan program. There were a total of 128 people who participated in 17 walks. Each participant who walked six times was eligible for the drawing. The walks were noncompetitive and open to all ages.

Walk Michigan was created by the Michigan Recreation and Park Association and Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Michigan in 1985. It was organized to provide Michiganders with opportunities to improve their health and fitness while also encouraging them to enjoy local recreation facilities.

The Romulus Recreation Department would like to give special recognition to Central Distributors of Beer, Inc.; Metro World; and Metro Airport Center Limited Partnership, who partially sponsored the grand prize trip.

Youth Fitness Meet

On July 25, 1991, 39 Romulus youths participated in the 34th Annual Youth Fitness Meet, which took place on Belle Isle. The meet takes place every year on the last Thursday of July. Participants from 42 Park and Recreation agencies compete in seven different track and field events. The events, which include four different age classifications, are the standing long jump, running long jump, agility run, dashes, running relays, chinning, and the softball throw.

As the winners of last year's John J. Considine Memorial Trophy, the Romulus team had the honor of leading special meet events. The Parade of Champions was led by the team, Lynelle Stewart and Robert Garner were the torch lighters, and Renee Britt and Robert Watts helped lead mass calisthenics.

Individual awards in the competitions went to: Jason Dew (first place, running long jump), Robert Garner (second place, running long jump), Jennifer Kusibab (second place, softball throw), Waynard Shreve (second place, standing long jump), Phillip Britt (fourth place, chinning), Larry Jackson (fourth place, chinning), Chris Koger (fourth place, chinning), Geoffrey Raphael (fourth place, standing long jump), and Charles Shreve (fourth place, standing long jump).

Youth participants were: Phillip Britt, Renee Britt, Kenny Burke, Ricky Burke, Helen Cleveland, Jessica Coleman, Jason Dew, Aaron Fecay, Charles Fecay, Chris Garner, Robert Garner, Chris Garwood, Theresa Genaw, Jeff Goldsmith, Terri Green, Alex Hackney, Joe Hackney, Kelly Hardeman, Marcel Hardeman, James Jackson, Larry Jackson, Laurie Kahl, Chris Koger, Jennifer Kusibab, Anson Long, John Penn, Geoffrey Raphael, Christopher Rocker, Charles Shreve, Waynard Shreve, Jennifer Slater, Geoffrey Sparr, George Sparr, Lynelle Stewart, Michelle Stull, Rebecca Swain, Robert Watts, Jonathan Williams, and Sarah Ziemer.

Event leaders for the Meet were: Gina Carter, Pat Hamlett, Evelyn Koerber, Karen Kusibab, Nikki Meeks, Sandy Schwartz, Angela Slawinski, and Christopher Thompson.

Program coordinators were Tina Bertschinger and Rick Doane. □

The Lighter Slice

A Guru Named Bob

By Tom Shamanski

My life, it seems, is like an endless flow of basketball games. Contentment, for me, is keeping at least one ball bouncing at all times. The thought of not being "into" something is, indeed, frightening to me.

Luckily, most of my "things" have been relatively safe, harmless, and socially acceptable. Of course, there was that time I got into airplanes. . . . I mean, really into airplanes, as in stowaway. Screeching down in Newark, I had my straw hat jammed down, flattening my ears, and my sunglasses were darker than a jealous bull's personality.

And I would have pulled it off, I'm sure - but, suddenly, I spotted an absolutely beautiful flight attendant, who, I'm certain, had an absolutely beautiful mind, which, no doubt, blended perfectly with her absolutely beautiful personality. The girl was sharp. Unable to stop myself, I strolled up to her and, in my own Fonzie manner, started throwing her my best line: "Hi, Baby-Flydoll. Say, do you ever date passengers and, if so, would you consider a weekend in Brooklyn a date? I'm a Leo, whaa . . ." Cutting me off, she quickly stepped forward . . . within hugging range, I thought. Instead of hugging, though, she began impacting me with a volley of karate punches that would have kept a laughing hyena in stitches for months. She was also yelling and calling me a pig, or something. Amazingly, she performed this entire routine with a warm, friendly smile gracing her face.

Soon, the police arrived and picked me up as I lay there doing my impersonation of a person who's just had a near-death experience.

Anyway, all this mish-mash is simply background for some serious discussion of my latest thing: YOGA! Now, we're not talking just any kind of yoga here, folks. This stately form of the art is taught by Tibetan gurus who are at least 720 moons old; who haven't bathed since Beaver's mom threw a cleaver at him in the last episode; and who are under 3'6" in their Goodyear sandals. Granted, these are some tall requirements, but they're necessary in order to weed out any undesirable people, or short gorillas.

My guru's name is Bob. I don't know if he's under 3'6" for sure, or if he's 270 moons or older; but I do know that the man hasn't bathed since I was six . . . about the time my parents told me that, if I wasn't good, I'd go back to work in the coal mines. Easily, I picked out a mantra: Phew!

We were a little awkward, Bob and I, until we discovered that we both collected baseball cards, loved chocolate pudding with beer, and had boa constrictors as pets. The boas, we agreed, were good to wrap snugly around our necks in winter, rather than messing with cumbersome scarves.

Then, I went home.

Wanting to impress Bob, I returned the next day with my boa placed neatly about my neck. After sufficient impressing, we were ready to begin our yoga session. But my darn boa would not let go of my neck; a "fatal attraction" thing, I guessed. Finally remembering our manners, we formally introduced Bob's boa to mine; mine let go of me faster than NBC let go of PeeWee. The last I heard, the two snakes found an expensive shirt, wrapped themselves around it, and were slithering along on the carnival circuit, billing themselves as a BoaArrow team.

Finally, Guru Bob and I were prepared to mold and fold ourselves into pretzels. . . or so I thought. Bob, however, had other thoughts.

"What is it you seek?" he asked.

"I seek Truth, Wisdom, and Family Harmony, and I want to see Florine Mark get really fat."

"Hmm," hummed Bob. "For all that, you must give me your red Corvette out front."

Panic! "But . . . but it's not mine. Yes, it belongs to a friend!"

Bob: "You seek Truth?"

"Okay, okay, it's mine. How about you take one of my kids instead?"

Bob: "You seek Family Harmony?"

Well, he had me; I threw my 'Vette keys toward his navel.

"Good," grinned Bob. "Now, come closer and I will reveal how you may obtain all your desires."

Inching over a nudge, I heard him whisper, "Do a headstand for the rest of your life."

My mouth popped open; my mouth slammed shut. Did he think I was some sort of a fool, or something? I mean, he wanted me to do something that he, obviously, didn't do himself.

"Sooo, if that's the secret, Bob-O, why don't you do it?" I said, as my upper lip rolled into a nasty sneer.

"Ahhh," he smirked, "If I did it, who would teach it?"

Being in favor of continuing education, what could I say? And, besides, who would even listen to a person who's constantly on his flat head? □

The Stork Arrived

Kelsey Ann Hadyniak

Proudly announcing the birth of their daughter, Kelsey Ann Hadyniak, are Scott and Karen Hadyniak of Belleville (formerly of Romulus).

Kelsey was born Sunday, April 21, 1991, at 4:24 a.m. at Riverside Hospital (Trenton). She weighed seven pounds, 13 ounces, and was 21 inches long.

Anxiously awaiting her arrival at home were her big brother Justin, who will be two on September 26, 1991, and her "big sister" (cousin) Amanda Stacey (five).

Kelsey's maternal grandparents are Bruce and Sue Mullins (Romulus) and her paternal grandparents are John and Esther (Toots) Hadyniak (Romulus). Her maternal great-grandmothers are Stella B. Mullins (Kentucky) and Nell Tackett (Ohio), and her paternal great-grandmother is Josephine Gilstorf (Romulus).

Making Kelsey's arrival extra special is the fact that she is John and Esther's only granddaughter among five grandsons. □

Diane Nicole Wright

Patty Wright and Robbie Polak of Romulus are proud to announce the birth of their first child, Diane Nicole Wright. Diane was born at Oakwood Hospital (Dearborn) on Saturday, August 3, 1991, at 2:12 a.m. She weighed six pounds, five ounces, and measured 19½ inches.

Diane's maternal grandfather is Ken Wright and her paternal grandparents are Gene and Karen Polak (all of Romulus).

Diane was named in remembrance of her grandmother, who is no longer with us. She would have been proud! □

Point of Law

By Murray A. Duncan, Jr., attorney

Generally, insulting words are not adequate provocation to reduce a murder charge to manslaughter. Manslaughter is a killing done to a human being while in the heat of passion. A classic example of this is when a husband walks in on his wife and her boyfriend and kills the boyfriend.

Adequate provocation to lessen a murder charge to manslaughter must be such that would cause a reasonable person to lose his/her control. Generally, mere words are not considered to fulfill this requirement.

A juvenile record may be used when the offender appears in court later as an adult. The automatic expungement of juvenile criminal records was created to prevent such a record from being an obstacle to educational and employment opportunities. It was not intended to bar consideration of the record if the juvenile was again tried as an adult.

Golf Tournament Update

By Fred Coleman, CAA, Athletic Director, Romulus Community Schools
 We need the names of your team members if you plan to play in the Varsity Club Scholar-Athlete Golf Tournament at Shady Hollow Golf Course on Saturday, October 12.
 The cost is $40 per team member for the "scramble-format" tournament, and must be sent to me, Fred Coleman, by Monday, September 30.
 Golf, cart, meal, prizes, and great fun are all guaranteed.

 Get your team together today for this super community event.
 Send all entries to the Romulus High School Athletic Department, 9650 South Wayne Road, Romulus, Michigan 48174.
 Checks should be made payable to Romulus High School (Varsity Club donation).
 For more information, call me at 941-1426. □

A Very Special Thank-you

The employees of the City of Romulus would like to thank the following businesses for their donations toward the employee baseball game/barbecue: Freddy's Party Store, Polka-Dot Party Pantry, Super "Y" Party Store, Block's Stand and Greenhouse, and Stears Hardware. □

Obituaries

Mary K. Barnes

Mary K. Barnes of Romulus died on September 2, 1991. She was 54 years old.

Mary, a homemaker, was born in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, on December 8, 1936.

She is survived by one son, Larry Barnes; one daughter, Mrs. Gerald (Kathy K.) Sells (Hamtramck); two brothers, Bobby James Ward (Romulus) and Jerry Lee Ward (Romulus); two sisters, Mrs. Clyde (Darlene) Mul-ins (Flat Rock) and Mrs. Harold "Bud" (Shelvy) Flowers (Romulus); and seven grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, James Barnes.

Funeral services were held on September 5 at Crane Funeral Home (36885 Goddard, Romulus), with Reverend J.D. Landis (Community United Methodist Church) officiating. Romulus Cemetery was the interment site. □

Edward J. Conrad

Local resident Edward J. Conrad died on September 4, 1991, at the age of 74.

Edward, a retired millwright who had been employed by Burroughs, was born in Detroit on January 27, 1917.

Edward was the beloved husband of Irene G. Makowski and the dear father of Greg E. Conrad (Romulus), Edward D. Conrad (Belleville), Mrs. John (Karen J.) Charkiewicz (Van Buren Township), Mrs. John (Janice A.) Ziriada (Flat Rock), Mrs. Eric (Cindy M.) Zeestraten (Belleville), and Mrs. Jim (Lori A.) Stumbo (Belleville). He is also survived by one brother, John Conrad (Southfield); one sister, Mrs. Mary Becherer (Birmingham); and eight grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on September 7 at St. Aloysius Catholic Church, with Father Michael Malawy officiating. Michigan Memorial Park (Flat Rock) was the site of interment.

Memorial tributes may be made to the American Lung Association, the American Cancer Foundation, or to a foundation for leukemia or cancer research. □

Pansy L. "Pat" Slater

Romulus resident Pansy L. "Pat" Slater, 67, died on September 3, 1991.

Pat, a homemaker, was born in McAndrews, Kentucky, on August 31, 1924.

She is survived by four sons, Billy Bruce Coaltrain (Romulus), Dennis Lee Slater (Romulus), Gary Ray Slater (Westland), and Robert Michael Slater (Romulus); two daughters, Mrs. Vickie A. McWilliams (Romulus) and Mrs. Paul (Peggy Joe) White (Romulus); one brother, Glen Blackburn (Ft.

Pierce, FL); three sisters, Mrs. Mary Ann Broughton (Waycross, GA), Mrs. Don (Virginia) Fennonnia (Naples, FL), and Mrs. Don (Billie) Williams (Illinois); and 11 grandchildren.

Pat was preceded in death by her husband, James E. Slater.

Funeral services were held on September 6 at Crane Funeral Home (36885 Goddard Road, Romulus), with Pastor Stephen Little (Westland Full Gospel Church) officiating. Romulus Cemetery was the interment site. □

Irene Wadsworth

Irene Wadsworth of Romulus died on August 23, 1991. She was 69 years old.

Irene, who was formerly employed as an inspector at Fisher Body, was born on May 2, 1922, in Detroit, and married William "Jack" Wadsworth, Sr. (who preceded her in death in 1985) in that city on September 21, 1941.

The dear mother of William (Jean) Wadsworth, Jr., Irene is also survived by one brother, Donald Brunning (Livonia); and three grandchildren, John, James, and Billy Wadsworth (all of Romulus). She is preceded in death by one brother, Jack (1976), and one sister, Shirley (1988).

Funeral services were held on August 27, 1991, at St. Aloysius Catholic Church, with Father Michael Malawy officiating. St. Hedwig Cemetery (Dearborn Heights) was the interment site. □
